Their commitment to boating safety, environmental stewardship, and mission readiness has made a profound impact on maritime safety and security in their area of responsibility.

Their spirit of service and dedication to supporting fellow flotillas and divisions, as well as their outstanding contributions to Coast Guard missions, make them a truly deserving recipient of this prestigious award.

Please join me in congratulating Flotilla 17-06 for their incredible work and well-earned recognition. Let's celebrate their success and continue striving for excellence across District 7.
